homecoming

Homecoming is a time to unbock all the school spirit you have. The week consisted of five enthusiastic days. Monday was "Pajama Day." Following that was "Career Day." Wednesday was "Tacky Day." Thursday was "Color Day," and Friday was the traditional "Cardinal and Gold Day," where the students can show all their school spirit for the pep assembly.

During halftime of the game Victoria Lemmon was crowned Homecoming Queen and Michael Carver was announced Mr. Football.

Freshmen Caitlin McPhee and Cory Davis help draw the locker signs and make the decorations used for their theme "Freeze The Bulldogs."

"Winning is not everything; it is the only thing," said senior Bernard Goin.

Coach Tim Gault calls a quick time out in the game. During a time out, he would tell the team what needed to happen next.

Football TRYING

When the 2004-2005 football season came to an end, the team had a record of 2-8. Despite having a losing record, the boys played their hearts out every game.

This year's team was led by seniors Matthew Bigott and Michael Carver. Matt has been the quarterback for the past two seasons and received MVP. Mike had an outstanding season for the Ingots. He broke two school records for career yards and career receptions. The wide receiver also made first team all state.

Next season junior Michael Perkins will take over as quarterback. Other players to watch out for are junior Terry Crofton and sophomore Jonathan Elea.

Running down the field, junior Terry Crofton scores a touchdown. Terry scored 10 touchdowns this season.

Senior Michael Carver and freshman Joshua Dawson make a tackle against South Central. Josh showed great potential and will be a player to look out for in the future. On Senior Night, the starting six players pump themselves up by jumping in a circle and barking at each other. The players picked up this technique from the fans who were also getting pumped up for the game.

Sophomore Ashley Clark prepares to set the ball. Ashley was team captain of the JV team and also played a few varsity games.

Sophomore Erica Havens pummels the ball over the net. Erica made many contributions to the team with her passing and spiking

Volleyball team has ASTONISHING

Senior Rachel Lightfoot pounds the ball into the opposing team's court. Rachel was captain of the varsity team.

Junior Mikal Minarich slams the ball over the net for a kill. Mikal was a main hitter on the team this year.

The volleyball team ended this year with an excellent record of 20-12. Coach Bob Woynarowski was pleased with the success of the team. The Most Valuable Player was awarded to Rachel Lightfoot and Mikal Minarich. Best Mental Attitude was awarded to April Brown and the Most Improved Player was awarded to Nichole Miodragovich. Although the team will lose five players due to graduation, they are looking forward to next season.

The JV team had a good season earning third place in the annual JV tournament. For the second year, the volleyball program retained a freshman team.

Senior defensive specialist Sabrina Salas passes the ball to her setter. Sabrina was an important part of the varsity team.

Coach Bob Woynarowski gives his team a pep talk before the game. Coach Woynarowski was always looking for different ways to motivate his girls. "The season was a lot of fun and I really enjoyed it," said sophomore Salvador Guel.

Senior captain Aubin Menchaca shakes hands with his opponent before the match. Aubin played number one singles this season.

Sophomore Kenneth Soria is attempting to return the serve. Kenneth was this year's Most Improved Player.

Boys' Tennis

Junior Armando Menchaca warms up before the Lake Station invite. This was Armando's third year playing on the team.

Chasing down the ball, junior Ricky Long makes a winning return. This was Ricky's first year playing tennis.

The boys' tennis team had another triumphant season. The boys had a record of 14-4. The team was victorious at the Lake Station invite and sectionals. It was the third year in a row that the tennis team won sectionals.

Team captains, seniors Aubin Menchaca and Oscar Venegas, were strong players for the team. They will not be easy to replace next season. On the bright side the team has seven returning players.

"I was happy that we were able to continue with the winning tradition that the tennis program has established," stated first year Coach Rodney Thompson.

Senior Oscar Venegas is a little off balance after making a return. Oscar has been a member of the team the past four seasons.

The team snaps a picture with Coach Rodney Thompson after winning sectionals. The boys hope to continue their domination at sectionals next year.

Senior Marisol Carrillo stops to get in a good stretch before the race. All the runners would take time to stretch before every race.

Senior Diego Gonzalez stops to take a breath after his race. Diego was the leading runner on the team this year and was named MVP

Cross country STRIVE win

Senior Maria Solis runs hard to finish her race. Maria was an important part of the girls' team.

Sophomore Timothy Bandy sets his own pace as he strives to the finish. Tim was named Best Mental Attitude.

Another season is over, another winning record for the girls. With the guidance of Coach Jason Quigg, the team ended with a record of 9.3 and a second place finish in the Northland Athletic Conference meet. Junior Rebeca Dominguez received the Most Valuable Player award along with senior Diego Gonzalez.

Although they had a small team, the boys never stopped trying. Despite their efforts this year, they ended with a record of 2-9.

Both teams are losing many of their runners due to graduation, but are looking forward to next year.

Freshman Luis Verduzco and senior Monica Solis talk about the previous race.

At the sound of the gun, the boys aggressively start the race hoping to place well in the NAC meet. "This year I am looking forward to going to competition for the first time," stated Elizabeth Howard.

Senior Victoria Lemmon and junior Haley Hardin show their spirit to the crowd. Haley and Victoria were the most experienced flyers on the squad.

Cheerleaders and the elementary students who participated in cheer camp cheer on the boys' basketball team. The elementary students played an invisible air guitar to the Beach Boys.

Senior Victoria Lemmon provides a group of elementary students with a pep talk before the game.

The number of cheerleaders greatly improved this year with the help of a new coach Chris Gaffner and the assistant coach Marie Salazar.

Last year, the cheerleading squad had seven girls and this year the numbers grew to 15 girls and two boys. The squad's practices started in the summer of 2004 and the season ended on March 13. 2005 with the Midwest Cheer/ Dance Competition.

This is the first time in a long time that the cheerleaders have gone to compete. In the co-ed division the team placed third and won the coveted spirit trophy. Based on this year's performance, next year looks to be as exciting as this year.

Elizabeth Howard, Victoria Lemmon, Erica Havens, Jessica Stryszyk, Erica Buckwalter Haley Hardin. Puangploy Phonkrasae. Melissa Potts, Sharon Schmidt, Ronald Delhaye, Lisa Halstead, Jessica Krasek and Amanda Degman show off the seniors' cheer poster.

The cheer squad poses in Swedish falls, a very complicated stunt. Using team work helped the squad achieve this pose.

Senior Brandy Parduhn is overwhelmed with joy as she is crowned 2005 Ms, Ingot Spirit. After it was announced, she was congratulated by the rest of the Spirit Court.

Sophomore Erica Havens traces letters out for projects in the sophomore hallway. Along with many others, Erica stayed late Tuesday night to help with the decorations.

A group of senior girls gather at the end of the senior hallway to practice a dance. They performed it at the pep assembly.

The Senior Class stands to scream their last battle cry. The battle cry is a tradition at River Forest that will continue to wrap up the homecoming pep assemblies.

Ingots Blow away at lazers Baskethall Homecoming

At halftime of the varsity game, seniors Rocio Cisneros and Michael Carver were announced Ms. and Mr. Basketball,

Senior Jamie Dailey places the final touch to the senior hallway. The Senior Class won hallway decorations with the theme "Send them Down Memory Lane."

It was an exhilarating week, as it always is when basketball homecoming draws closer. It was the last homecoming of the year and the last chance for the Senior Class to teach the underclassmen how to show their true colors, cardinal and gold. The spotlight during winter homecoming is always on the seniors.

The Ingots fought to win the homecoming basketball game from the beginning to the end. It was close, but in the end the boys dominated against the Blazers in both the junior varsity and varsity competition.

Sophomores Hermine Robinson and Melanie Valdez shake the excess glitter off of a poster that was placed in their hallway.

Seniors Eric Nunez, Nichole Miodragovich and Maria Solis tape pictures for the time line in their hallway.

Sophomores Kenneth Soria and Tony Arocho decide how to improve their painting of Joe Magarac. The theme for the sophomore hallway was "Extinguish the Blazers."

The Spirit Court members (seniors Michael Carver, Paullette Blankenship, April Brown, Matthew Franklin, Jamie Dailey, Scott Westmoreland, Rocio Cisneros, John Trezak, Brandy Parduhn and Bernard Goin) line up at the pep assembly in front of the highest-hool students and faculty. The court is chosen by the Senior Class and Mr. and Ms. Ingo Spirit is voted on by the entire school.

Junior Jesse Short scrambles for the ball down low. This was Jesse's first year on the team and his height was a much needed advantage for the Ingots.

Working constantly to reconstruct the school, the employees from Service Master barely get a break.

Immediately after the incident, workers were at the school in attempt to furnigate the building for students and faculty to return. The burn marks on the side of the building were visable from the school parking lot.

Investigation of arson continues:

Covered in water, the gym lobby was heavily damaged. The main floor of the high school did not get much fire damage, but the attempt to put it out caused excess water to mar the building.

On Thursday, October 21, during a routine nightly check of the schools, a police officer found the River Forest High School building ablaze. Fire fighters worked all through the morning to extinguish the fire, and by morning it was known that the school was not accessible.

Instantaneously, it was discovered that the fire was no accident. Such a tremendous act of hate disturbed the entire community and citizens began to help out. There was a question of what was going to be done, but with all of the community support and hard work the school was available after a couple weeks.

After the fire, the rooms were cleared out and everything had to be cleaned. The Bill Logan Gymnasium was used as both storage and a cleaning station.

"Turnabout turned out great for me. It was my last Turnabout and nothing was going to ruin it for me. Good teamwork Nikki!"exclaimed senior Amber Coleman,

Students at this year's Turnabout scattered to find their dates to share a romantic dance for the first slow song of the night.

Junior Julia Horn and her date get close during the time that they took a break from dancing the night away.

Junior Alisha West and sophomore Jennifer Perez bust a groove to the song "The Macarena."

Juniors Kathryn Lyle and Kristopher Ragan stop at the refreshment table to quickly grab a cup of punch and then get back to dancing

Juniors Puangploy Phonkrasae and Armando Menchaca share a slow dance.

Turnabout is a time and place to let loose and dance. The tradition of a boy asking a girl is broken around this time of year, when it is essential for the ladies to ask the gentlemen. This year tickets were at a cost of $35 dollars for a couple and $17.50 for an individual ticket. Many tickets were purchased individually, so students could go with a group of friends rather than having a date.

"I was extremely excited for my first Turnabout. It was fun and my friends made it even better!" exclaimed freshman Britne Ester. For many of the freshmen this was the first formal dance that they could attend.

Juniors Ashley Milliken and Lauren Struehig laugh as they dance to the music.

Junior Sarah Denton and her date share a fun moment at the 2005 Turnabout. Many people, like Sarah, had a great time at Turnabout sharing it with friends and dates.

Seniors Michael Toigo and Matthew Franklin along with sophomore Salvador Guel line dance to the beat of the music.

A group of seniors jump out of their seats to enjoy the music.

Senior Diego Gonzalez stuggles to take a picture for a friend while holding his camcorder. Many pictures were snapped by the students to help them remember the night.

Looking through the photographer's camera, junior Jesse Short catches a glimpse of what the finished picture may look like.

Students enjoy a slow song on the crammed dance floor.

Senior Edwin Hernandez shares a conversation with his date, a former River Forest student.

"Bella Notte" was the theme chosen for the 2005 Junior-Senior Prom. Translated into English, the Italian phrase roughly means "A Beautiful Night." The Junior Class chose to do something different this year by using an Italian theme.

The goal of the Junior Class was to give the seniors a magical night that they could always remember. To make the theme even more special, the formal dance was held at "Casa Del Roma," an Italian restaurant in Valparaiso, Indiana

The 2005 Junior-Senior Prom was held on Friday, April 29, and the colors were dark purple and dark green.

A circle of students gather together to share a classic song played by the disc jockey. During many of the faster paced songs students were found dancing in large groups.

Senior Jamie Dailey borrows dance parter sophomore Loren Parduhn's hat as they groove to the beat of the music.

Senior Nichole Miodragovich receives a State of Indiana Academic Honors diploma from Mr. Jeffrey Van Drie.

Senior Juan Martinez worked in the library during the school year for Mrs. Peg Hunt, the librarian. Juan received recognition for his time and effort.

The Senior Class of 2005 experienced a few difficulties throughout the year. However, they came through. Many seniors received awards on Awards Day ranging from attendance to academics to scholarships.

Graduation was held in the high school gymnasium on June 9. This is the last time the seniors were able to say goodbye to high school friends before moving on to a new stage in their lives.

"The Class of 2005 was a great class. They will truly be missed," said Mrs. Danvelle Kozma.

Everyone in the Class of 2005 made a tremendous difference and will always be remembered.

People always say that high school is the best time of our lives. With the ending of this book, the year's door is closed and next year's door is being unlocked. The memories and "Best Kept Secrets" we have created throughout the year have been stored in our minds. The purpose of this yearbook is to help unlock those memories we have forgotten over time and to remember the place where "Everyone Knows Your Name."
